INDIANAPOLIS, IND., TUESDAY MORNING. JULY 8, 1862.

In order that the People, the source of power in all constitutional governments, who sincerely INDIANAPOLIS RAILROAD TIME TABLE. desire to perpetuate the Union, as founded and administered by our patriotic fathers, may have the opportunity to condemn these unconsti tutional measures; to express their sympathy and their determination to support the Administra tion in every legitimate effort to crush out treason, "where'er it may rear its head;" to "defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution.' and to uphold the rights and institutions of all the States unimpaired; to say to those in authority, the servants of the people, what are the legitimate and appropriate means to put down this rebellion; to condemn fraud and corruption and all unconstitutional, illegitimate and unnecessary measures, calculated to weaken instead of strengthening a love and respect for the Union; to restore a wise, just, pure, equal and beneficent administration of the Government, such as the people desire; and to renew the pledge made by the last Democratic State Convention in behalf of the Democracy of Indiana, "That we will sustain, with all our energies, a war for the maintenance of the Constitution, and of the integrity of the Union under the Constitution; but we are opposed to a war for the emancipation of the negroes, or the subjugation of the Southern States," the Democratic State Central Committee, now ask them to assemble in mass convention. Trains Arrive.

All who desire to see the stars and the stripes float over every inch of American soil in liberty, fraternity and equality; all who insist that the Government shall have a fixed policy in the prosecution of the war, known to the whole country; all who sympathize with the sixty thousand sons of Indiana who have volunteered and are in the field to defend and maintain the Constitution and the Union, and who wish to see them relieved from their arduous duties and exposure of health and life in defense thereof, by a prompt suppression of the rebellion and the restoration Terre Haute through mail 7:00 P.
